Love thy neighbour Relationships based on faithful love, until death, like marriage, fatherhood, being child or sibling, are learned and lived in the household. When these relationships form the basic fabric of a human society, they lend cohesion and consistency. It is therefore not possible to be part of a people, to feel as a neighbour, to take care of someone who is more distant and unfortunate if, in the heart of man, these fundamental relationships, which give him security in openness towards others, are broken. Pope Francis DR p.58

To love God with all your heart, with all your understanding and strength, and to love your neighbour as yourself...Mark 12:33
